

9th International Conference on Construction Grammar Program
Day 1 - October 5th 2016
08:00	Registration [Foyer]
08:30
09:00	Opening Ceremony [Conference Room 3]
09:30
10:00	Plenary Talk 1 - Trees, Assemblies, Chains, and Windows - Ronald Langacker [Conference Room 3]
10:30	Coffee break [Foyer]
	Conference Room 1	Conference Room 2	Conference Room 3	Conference Room 4
11:00	Prepositional constructions different in spoken and written genre - Kuznetsova & Makarova	Constructions, Usage and Intersubjectivity - Session Intro - Ferrari	The frame-based representation of SNOMED Clinical Terms® - Wermuth	Pivot constructions as mitigated echolalia by Brazilian children with Autistic Spectrum Disorder - Dornelas & Rocha
11:30	"On means auf": the semantics of English and German prepositional complements in contrast - Uhrig & Zeschel	Negotiating "subjectivities" in interaction: concessive constructions and mental spaces settings - Coneglian	Collocational networks and morphosyntactic patterns in specialized corpora - Sanchez-Cárdenas & Ramisch	Prosody and constructional meaning: data on spoken Brazilian Portuguese - Bossaglia & Mello
12:00	One construction or two? Caused-motion-construction in French-German bilingual children - Scholtz & Koch	Cognitive alignment and generic uses of pronouns in interaction - Andrade Abreu	Frame to frame relations and specialized corpus in the development of semantic frames for the tourism domain - Gamonal	Nice and Adj/Adv Construction in Imperative - Fujinaga
12:30	Lunch break
13:00
13:30
	Conference Room 1	Conference Room 2	Conference Room 3	Conference Room 4
14:00	Argument Structure Constructions and Metaphor in Null Instantiation Patterns - David	Present tense and epistemic proximity in journalistic headlines - Soares da Silva	Combining Frame Semantics and distributional semantics to discover frames within the field of the environment - Azoulay & L'Homme	Construction Grammar and Derivational Morphology - Costa & Miranda
14:30	What the ... ? The emotion of question augmentatives - Ellsworth	Temporal backshifting and intersubjectivity in Brazilian Portuguese conditionals - Silva de Almeida	Multidimensionality in Frame-Based Terminology - León-Araúz	Paradigms on the level of phrases within a constructional network - Odden
15:00	Grammar and image: how language modulates grammar and grammar modulates image - Abreu & Vieira	(Inter) subjectivity as a conceptual device within the epistemic complementation clause network - Almeida Faria	Exploring the Conventional Frame Constraint in metaphorical verb meanings from the environmental science domain - Gómez-Moreno	Quasi-grammatical constructions: lexical expression of grammatical meanings - Rakhilina, Letuchiy & Plungian
15:30	Pragmatics and construction choice in cognitive sociolinguistics: contrastive negation in English - Silvennoinen	(Inter)Subjectivity and Epistemic Constructions: a cognitive corpus-based study of Brazilian Portuguese - Ávila	Multimodality in Frame-Based Terminology - Reimerink	(Re)production in performance: a Construction Grammar analysis of Baltic folk songs - Dautartas
	Conference Room 1	Conference Room 2	Conference Room 3	Conference Room 4
16:30	Information structure and the pragmatics of three verbal negation constructions in Br Portuguese - Lima e Silva & Mello	Intersubjectivity and constructionalization of [Locative+Verb] connectors in Portuguese - Rios de Oliveira	Participant and argument roles in CG vs. semantic categories and semantic roles in Frame-based Terminology - Buendía-Castro	The relation between motion verbs and motion constructions – a question of lexicogrammatical attract - Olofsson
17:00	Definiteness and finite clause complements - Leino	Frequency effects and the impact of Christianity in the emergence of reportative meaning of Latin secundum NP - Guardamagna	Hyperversatility as a problem for frame-based conceptual modeling - Pizarro	Phrasal Verbs: a lexicogrammar teaching perspective - Vieira & Abreu
17:30	Constructions are not predictable but motivated: Evidence from the Spanish completive reflexive - Lewandowski	Semantic and pragmatic properties of ditransitive construction in Brazilian Portuguese - Furtado da Cunha	The emergence of the FINANCIAL MANAGEMENT frame as a result of cognitive mechanisms - Potęga & Grygiel
18:00	From syntactic tests to constructional diagnostics of the role of argument structure constructions - Pedersen		The function of interactional frames in the production and perception of oral poetry - Dautartas
18:30	The acceptability of ba+subject-oriented resultative construction in Chinese - Yu		A frame-based multilingual knowledge base for sports and tourism – m.knob - Matos, Torrent, Gamonal, Peron & Diniz
19:00	Welcome Reception [Rooftop]

Time	Day 2 - October 6th 2016
	Conference Room 1		Conference Room 2		Conference Room 3	Conference Room 4
09:00	Session Intro: The Case for Itemology - Uhrig		Fictive interaction as grammatical construction: pairing between prosody and meaning in Brazilian Portuguese - Rocha		OmniGraph: Semantic Frame Representation and Graph Kernel Learning - Xie & Passonneau	Constructions in Functional Discourse Grammar - ten Wold
09:30	New verbs of communication in English and German from a constructionist and a valency angle - Goldberg & Herbst		Information structure and constructional productivity: the case of BP adverbial adjective - Pinheiro & Virgínio		Vector Space for Semantic Roles: Distances and Semantic Maps - Lyashevskaya & Kashkin	The dynamics of patterns and constructions - Petr�
10:00	New verbs of communication in English and German from a constructionist and a valency angle - Goldberg & Herbst		Constructions and frame-shifting in short jokes - Marinho		Unsupervised Induction of Shallow Semantic Representations with Feature-Rich Models - Marcheggiani, Khoddam & Titov	Pseudocoordination in Mainland Scandinavian. The g� 'go/walk' - construction in the history of Swedish - Andersson & Blenselius
10:30	Continuous frame/content shaped interchangeably in idiosyncratic verb and tense element Cane		Multimodal metaphoric constructions in verbal-gestural compounds - Avelar de Miranda		Computational Semantics with Frames and Constructions Poster Session See Appendix 1	Multiple source constructions in language change: a case study - McColm
11:00	Coffee break [Foyer]
11:30	Plenary Talk 2 - From Construction Grammar to embodied construction practice - Sabine De Knop [Conference Room 3]
12:00
12:30
13:00	Lunch break
13:30
	Conference Room 1		Conference Room 2		Conference Room 3	Conference Room 4

16:00	Coffee break [Foyer]
	Conference Room 1		Conference Room 3 Lobby		Conference Room 3	Conference Room 4
16:30					Three-Minute Madness Session See Appendix 2
17:00
17:30			Computational Semantics with Frames and Constructions Poster Session See Appendix 1		Three-Minute Madness Feedback Round
18:00	Plenary Talk 3 - (Construction) Grammar does not Suffice for NLU - Jerome Feldman [Conference Room 3]
18:30
19:00
	Appendix 1 - Poster Session [Room 3 Lobby]				Appendix 2 - Three-Minute Madness Session [Room 3]
	Embodied Construction Grammar Meaning Representation of Frames and Constructions:Caused_motion - Dodge & Petruck		Frame-based resolution of coreference in the case of the highly inflected language - Ogrodniczuk & Zawisl�wska		A study on the use of arguments in nominalizations finished in -TION in academic texts of native speakers - Perini-Loureiro	Linguistic and Computational Modeling of the Active Transitive, Ergative and Split Object Constructions - Almeida
	Larger than Words – Construction Disambiguation with Swedish FrameNet and Construction - Ehrlemark & Johansson		Distributional Embeddings and Diachronic Construction Grammar - Budts, Kestemont & Petr�		A constructional case study regarding the legitimacy of continuous tenses in Albanian - Cane	Type noun constructions in North Scandinavian - Odden
	Semantic Relation Disambiguation in Swedish Compounds with Swedish FrameNet and SALDO - Hedberg & Johansson		Grammatical Framework for Implementing Multilingual Frames and Constructions - Gruzitis, Dann��ls, Ranta & Tyers		Discrepancies between the passive construction in Brazilian Portuguese and English - Guimar��es & Souza	Foregrounding and Backgrounding in biblical narrative - Santos
					From discourse to syntax: a quantitative look into the strategies of subject indetermination in Brazilian Portuguese - Rosa	Word Profile Automatic Tracking Through the Prism of Construction Grammars and Distributionalism - Cartier
					Constructional tolerance in the Brazilian Portuguese Caused-Motion Construction Syntax - Ribeiro	Machine Translation for Entity Nouns in a Qualia-Enriched Domain-Specific FrameNet - Diniz
					Se p� constructions in Brazilian Portuguese: a preliminary Construction Grammar approach - Agostini & Hirata-Vale	A Cognitive Analysis Of The Deictic Expression Here (Aqui) In Interviews And In Comic Strips - Ferraz Pinheiro

Time	Day 3 - October 7th 2016
	Conference Room 1			Conference Room 2			Conference Room 3			Conference Room 4
09:00		Frame Relevance: a measure for distinguishing between arguments and adjuncts - Leino, Hamunen, Kittilä & Rostila		The Future (interpretation) of the Finnish Progressive Construction - Niva			The development of a complex conditional conjunction: the case of (en) (el) caso (de) que in Spanish - Granvik			The Saussurean Sign Revisited. Accounting for form-meaning mismatches in CG - Koutsoukos, Van Goethem & De Smet
09:30		Frame evoking non-lexical elements - Denbæk		Cognitive Construals underlying Grammatical Aspects and Modalities in Dravidian Languages - Muralidaran & Katrapati			Constructional changes: a diachronic study of the prepositional phrase por causa de - Araújo de Oliveira & Paiva			A quantitative measure of constructional contamination through superficial resemblance - Pijpops & de Velde
10:00		Be My Guest – Polysemy in FrameNet resources - Friberg & Dannéls		Building a scalar model for Finnish verbs of remaining and their polarity - Dubois			Binominal Constructions in Portuguese - Alonso & Freitas Junior			Pop goes the weasel: On how full-verb inversion lifts restrictions on the use of the simple present - De Wit
10:30		A usage-based approach to the spray/load alternation - Otani		Fact constructions across languages - Kittilä			Variable particle positioning in English transitive phrasal verbs - Oliveira			Disentangling form-meaning mismatches of light verbs: an image-schematic approach - Suñer Munoz
11:00		Coffee break [Foyer]
11:30		Plenary Talk 4 - Subtle implicit language facts emerge from the functions of constructions - Adele Goldberg [Conference Room 3]
12:00
12:30
13:00		Lunch break
13:30
	Conference Room 1			Conference Room 2			Conference Room 3			Conference Room 4
14:00		A Construction for Russian - Barylnikova, Tyers & Rakhilina					Brazilian Portuguese Clefts: A Case of Constructionalization? - Braga, Cunha & Leite de Oliveira			V1 and V2 Coordination, Multiple Inheritance, and Polysemy - Svorou
14:30		A construction-based approach to teaching Swedish as a second language - Håkansson, Lyngfelt, Olofsson & Prentice					Constructionalization and Constructional Changes: The Case Of [Xque] Connector - Cezario & dos Santos			Overgeneralization of modal verbs in child language as a result of non-conventional form-meaning mapping - Jonkers
15:00		Adding Constraints to the Brazilian Portuguese Construction - Lage, Torrent & Matos					Constructions of Terminative Aspect in Brazilian Portuguese - Loiola			Discussion - Hilpert
15:30		Construction and syntax – on relations between constructions and constructs - Lyngfelt					Constructional Changes: A Diachronic Study Of Porém, Contudo And Todavia - Silva de Oliveira
16:00		Coffee break [Foyer]
	Conference Room 1			Conference Room 2			Conference Room 3			Conference Room 4
16:30		Designing a Construction of English - Herbst					On the evolution of constructions: a Brazilian Portuguese case study on [pegar] and [(a)garrar] - Coelho & Cristófar
17:00		Comparing constructi(c)ons across languages - Lyngfelt, Torrent, Bäckström & Laviola da Silva					Grammaticalization and Verb Constructions in Varieties of Portuguese: Intralinguistic Tendencies? - Santos Carvalho
17:30		Semantic and Pragmatic Aspects of The Concessive-Comparative Construction “(até que) para X, Y” - Pires & Rocha					The development of [SÓ QUE X] in Portuguese from the perspective of grammatical constructionalization - Cunha Lacerda
18:00		Plenary Talk 5 - Three open questions in Diachronic Construction Grammar - Martin Hilpert [Conference Room 3]
18:30
19:00
		Farewell

International FrameNet Workshop 2016 Program
	Day 4 - Oct. 08th 2016 [Conference Room 1]			Day 5 - Oct. 09th 2016 [Conference Room 1]
08:00	Exploring KR and role inference in automatic information extraction		Denis Araujo & Sandro Rigo	Policy alignment: Introductory talk about aspects in which FN projects should be compatible to each other followed by open floor discussion about the need and/or specifications for a global FN policy. Community
08:30	Extracting Common and Complex Knowledge from Text		Michael Roth
09:00	Network Analysis on Frame-to-frame Relations of FrameNet		Joseph Wai-lp Lam
09:30	Integrated Annotation of FrameNet and MetaNet		Miriam R L Petruck & Ellen Dodge
10:00	Coffee break [Foyer]
10:30	Frame-semantic parsing using FrameNet-derived ECG constructions		Ellen Dodge, Sean Trott & Luca Gilardi
11:00	Russian FrameBank now linked to FrameNet		Olga Lyashevskaya
11:30	Introducing OpenWordnet-PT: a open Portuguese wordnet for reasoning		Alexandre Rademaker, Valeria de Paiva, Livy Real, Cláudia Freitas & Fabio Chalub
12:00	Lunch			Farewell
12:30
13:00
13:30	Research progress in Chinese FrameNet		Ru Li, Q. Chai & H. Zhao
14:00	Swedish FrameNet framing of a different shade		Karin Heppin, Malin Ahlberg, Lars Borin, Dana Dannélls, Markus Forsberg et al.
14:30	The Swedish Constructicon – current status and future prospects		Benjamin Lyngfelt
15:00	FrameNet development for Latvian		Normunds Gruzitis & Guntis Barzdins
15:30	Coffee break [Foyer]
16:00	Force Dynamics in FrameNet		Hannah Phinney, Michael Ellsworth, Miriam R L Petruck & Collin Baker
16:30	The Special Problem of Spatial Language: Representing Space in FrameNet		Michael Ellsworth
17:00	A flexible tool for an enriched FrameNet: the FrameNet Brasil Webtool 2.0		Ely Matos & Tiago Torrent
17:30	Towards Greater Collaboration in FrameNet Development		Collin Baker
18:00	Closing
	Color Code
	Plenary Talk				General Session
	Three-minute Madness Session				Computational Semantics with Frames and Constructions
	Frame-Based Accounts of Specialist Languages				Constructions, Usage and Intersubjectivity
	Constructionalization and Constructional Changes				What's in a word? – Item-specific and general knowledge in linguistic theory
	The Saussurean sign revisited: Accounting for form-meaning mismatches				International FrameNet Workshop
