1.5. The results of the approval or rejection of the appeals will be made public until 5:00 PM, 09/09/2019, on the website of the Graduate Program in linguistics (www.ufjf.br/ppglinguistica) and on the information board of the Graduate Program in Linguistics.

2. CANDIDATE REQUIREMENTS:

2.1. The candidates who wish to apply to the Master's Degree Course in Linguistics must possess an undergraduate diploma acknowledged by MEC or, in the case of a foreign student, a diploma acknowledged by the competent organizations on their country.

3. APPLICATION PROCESS:

3.1 Applications will be received from 5:00 PM, 09/09/2019 until 4:59 PM, 10/07/2019. Candidates must fill in the electronic form available at www.ufjf.br/ppglinguistica, free of charge.

3.2. The necessary documents for the application must be attached to the electronic form, in a PDF format.

3.3. Documents for the application:

3.3.1. Electronic form, properly filled in by the candidate, in which he/she must indicate, mandatorily, the Line of Research and the requested Advisor;

3.3.2. Preliminary research project, according to the model available on Appendix I of this Public Call;

3.3.3. Graduate diploma or, in the case of candidates who are concluding their graduation, a statement issued by a competent entity from their home institution, stating the foreseen date for the completion of the course, since the completion of the graduation must be prior to the enrolment in the master's course;

3.3.4. For candidates who wish to be exempt from the English proficiency exam, proof of proficiency in English based on the following exams must be presented, with scores within the following marks and within the validity period, when applicable: TOEFL ITP (460 points); TOEFL iBT (57 points); IELTS (4.0 points); Cambridge (FCE or higher); TOEIC (550 points), with the exception of foreign candidates who have English as L1, who can be dismissed from the proficiency exam without proof of language proficiency. Alternatively, proof of English proficiency in the master course will be accepted, when applicable.

3.3.5. For foreign candidates who intend to be exempt from the Portuguese proficiency exam but do not have Portuguese as their L1, proof of proficiency in Portuguese on the Celpe-Bras exam (Upper-Intermediate);

3.3.6. Identification document (ID card, passport, driver's license, work permit or professional permit), and, for the Brazilian candidates, CPF, voter registration card and documents that prove the candidate is up to date with their voting duty, available at <http://www.tse.jus.br/eleitor/servicos/certidoes/certidao-de-quitacao-eleitoral>, as well as a document that proves male candidates are up to date with their military duties. All documents must be within a single PDF file.

3.4. The results of the approval or rejection of the application requirements will be made public until 5:00 PM, 10/15/2019, on the website of the Graduate Program in Linguistics (www.ufff.br/ppglinguistica) and on the information board of the Graduate Program in Linguistics.

3.4.1. Appeals against the rejections of application requirements may be filed until 5:00 PM, 10/17/2019, by means of an electronic form available on the website of the Graduate Program in Linguistics (www.ufff.br/ppglinguistica).

3.4.2. Attaching additional documents will not be allowed in the appeal process.

3.4.3. The appeals against the rejections of applications will be judged by the Selective Process Commission.

3.4.4. The results of the appeals against the rejection of application requirements will be posted until 5:00 PM, 10/18/2019, on the website of the Graduate Program in Linguistics (www.ufjf.br/ppglinguistica) and on the information board of the Graduate Program in Linguistics.

3.5. If the proofs of language proficiency, in the examinations mentioned in items 3.3.4. and 3.3.5., are not accepted, the candidates must necessarily take the language proficiency exams, as seen in this Public Call.

3.6. The appeals will be judged by the Selective Process Commission. The exam preparation and correction boards may be heard if necessary.

4. SELECTION STAGES AND DATES:

4.1. The selection process for the Master's Degree Course of the stricto sensu Graduate Program in Linguistics of UFJF - 2020 - will be carried out in three stages:

6. FINAL DISPOSITIONS:

6.1. The elaboration, application and correction boards of the Portuguese, Foreign Language and specific knowledge in Linguistics exams will be formed exclusively by affiliated professors of the Graduate Program in Linguistics of UFJF.

6.2. The first two stages will be conducted by an Examining Board composed of three affiliated professors of the Graduate Program in Linguistics of UFJF.

6.3. The third stage will be conducted by the advisor (s) selected by the candidate at the time of application.

6.4. Candidates must be identified in the written exams by a number. If the candidate signs the exams or identifies himself/herself, he/she will be eliminated from the selection process.

6.5. The preliminary research project should not contain identification of the candidate, according to the instructions in Appendix I.

6.6. Persons with Disabilities (PCD) must inform their needs in the application form, so that accessibility and other conditions that enable their isonomic participation in the selection are provided.

6.7. On the day of the exams, each candidate must bring an original identification document containing a picture and a blue or black pen.

6.8. The candidates must arrive at the place of examination 30 minutes before the stipulated starting time.

6.9. The candidates are only allowed to leave the examination room 30 minutes after the beginning of the exam.

6.10. After 30 minutes since the beginning of the exam, the entrance of late candidates in the examination room is not allowed.

6.11. The last three (3) candidates present at the examination room must remain there until the three have completed the exam within the established time.

6.12. In each score, as well as in the calculation of the averages, the values will be considered up to the first decimal place, with second decimal places being rounded, as in the examples: 82,46 and 61,42 become officially 82.5 and 61.4.

6.13. In the event of a tie between the candidates, preference for classification will be given to the older candidate.

6.14. The results of each stage of the selection process, as well as the final result, will be published through a nominal list, sorted by classification, with the scores of each candidate, including the disqualified ones.

6.15. No exam results will be provided by phone or e-mail.

6.16. The final classification of the candidates will respect the decreasing order according to the score obtained in the analysis of the preliminary research project, within the limit of places of this Public Call.

6.17. The registration of the selected candidate will be carried out in a period to be announced by the Program Secretariat.

6.18. For the registration of the approved candidates in this Public Call, the following documents will be required, without which the candidate cannot be admitted as a student of the program: undergraduation diploma; undergraduation records; identification document (identity card, passport, driver's license, work permit or professional portfolio); CPF. Additionally to the documents listed, Brazilian candidates are required to provide voter registration card and documents that prove the candidate is up to date with their voting duty, available at <http://www.tse.jus.br/eleitor/servicos/certidoes/certidao-de-quitacao-eleitoral>, as well as a document that proves male candidates are up to date with their military duties. For foreign candidates, in addition to the documents listed, other may be required, as defined by UFJF's International Office by the time of admission.

6.19. In compliance with the terms of art. 14, V, of the General Rules of stricto sensu Graduate Diplomas, foreign candidates, in addition to submitting a valid identity document, must submit, for registration, a temporary or permanent visa that authorizes them to study in Brazil.

6.20. The application of the candidates will imply their knowledge and tacit acceptance of the rules and conditions contained in this Public Call, in relation to which they cannot claim ignorance.

6.21. For more information, consult the other tabs on the website of the Graduate Program in Linguistics or contact the Program Planning Board through the e-mail selecao.ppg.linguistica@uff.edu.br.

6.22. This selection process is valid until the realization of a subsequent process.

Juiz de Fora, September 2nd, 2019.
